President-Elect.Facts Relating to Status of Emergency Tariff Measure
Before Harding—A Busy
Day for President-Elect.St. Augustine, Florida, Feb. 18.— Announcement of the appointment of Charles Evans Hughes as secretary of state was made today by President-Elect Harding.Formal announcement of this appointment was made today by President-Elect Harding, after conferences with Governor Hughes, which lasted the entire forenoon. Mr.
Harding stated simply that Justice Hughes has been tendered and had accepted the appointment.Difficult Problems.
St. Augustine, Florida, Feb. 19.—
The perplexing job of trying to plug up the few remaining vacancies in his cabinet, was laid aside, temporarily today, by President-Elect Harding, while he took up two phases of his presidential duties which will demand attention by the time the congress assemblies, early in April.One of these concerned international affairs, primarily taxation and tariff legislation and for this, Representative James W. Fordney, of Michigan, chairman of the house ways-and-means committee, was in consultation.
While the president-elect has carefully refrained from commenting on international affairs or the new administration's plans in regard thereto, there is reason to believe that in the almost four months since the election Mr. Harding has formulated certain definite ideas concerning international relations, which he will carry with him into the White House, two weeks hence.Status of Measures.
Representative Fordney reported to Mr. Harding the status of the emergency tariff bill, which he fati-gued during the present session and which is now in conference. This bill is practically certain of a presidential veto if passed and Chairman Fordney is understood to have held little hope of mustering sufficient strength to override the White House objections.A new candidate for the navy secretaryship, today, in the shape of Robert L. Satterlee, of New York.
Satterlee was assistant secretary of the navy under Roosevelt and is now president of the Navy League, of New York.There are perhaps more candidates for the secretaryship of labor than any other office in the Harding cabinet. Labor organizations have been with each other in putting forth candidates, all trades unionists. So far, Mr. Harding has accepted all suggestions without giving any indication of a preference.ENDERS DAUGHTERY

Murphy of Action.Washington, Feb. 19.—President-Elect Harding informed Representative Murphy, of Ohio, in a letter received today, that he had tendered his cabinet post to Harry M. Daugherty.Representative Murphy and other Ohio representatives wrote
the president-elect, urging Captain Duff Tetterton, of Ohio, as secretary of labor. In replying, the president-elect said:
"I can not promise to tender this post to Captain Tetterton, because I am not a cabinet position to be tendered. I have rather done as much for Ohio in the creation of the official family as I can reasonably be expected to do."The president-elect stated he would be glad to consider Captain Tetterton for appointment to a post in the labor department.Liberty Bonds.

PARTY IS KEPTNew Organization of National Woman's Party.A CONVENTION HELD
IN NATIONAL CAPITALObjections Are Made Known
When Feminist Program Is Submitted.Washington, Feb. 19.—The political life of the National Woman's party passed away and a new organization, bearing the name and colors of the old, was born last night. Mrs. James M. Rector, Columbus, president, said, "The new organization, its leaders said, will function with the energy of the old,
the only difference being in its objective," which was described as the "removal of the local disabilities of women" of America.Spirited discussions marked the transformation from the old to the new, each step being subject to many speeches and careful analysis of the convention leaders. The leaders were determined that the machinery created eight years ago to work for the enfranchisement of women should not pass into the control of radical or militarist hands.The first fight developed when the minority opinion of the resolutions committee was filed. It specified that the immediate work of the new organization should be in behalf of "disarmament" rather than the purely feminist program urged by the majority committee members.
After a prolonged verbal maneuver it was voted to accept the latter and reject the disarmament proposal.Discussions covered a wide range of subjects, including an association of nations, birth control, plans for electing women to congress and other federal and state offices until their representation should be equal to that of the men; the rewriting of existing laws regulating divorce, guardianship of children, sexual morality and changing standards to permit women to have full partnership under the law of family incomes.A resolution embodying many of these questions and specifying them as the "program of work" for the new organization was introduced as an amendment to the majority report by Miss Crystal Eastman, of New York. It was defeated by a vote of 175 to ninety-five, after extended discussions, which reached fever pitch at times. In its place the convention adopted the conservative statement of the majority report, declaring merely that "the immediate work of the new organization be the removal of the legal disabilities of women."LOANS UNDER NEW CREDITSTreasury Loans to Europe After War Total $2,000,000,000.AFTER-WAR PHASE IN FINANCING EUROPERevealed in Figures Prepared by Probers.France and Italy Are Heaviest Borrowers, but England and Others Also Get a Share.
Some Data Submitted.Washington, Feb. 19.—Treasury loans to European governments, under new credits established after the close of the war, have aggregated $2,000,000,000. This after-the-war phase in the government's program of financing Europe was revealed today in figures to be laid before the senate judiciary committee.
France and Italy were the chief borrowers after the armistice, although England and other beneficiaries of loans continued after the war to receive heavy cash advances, made possible by credits previously established.Data showing how the $10,000,- 000,000 loaned to the European governments was expended over the entire period after America's entry into the war, was ready today, to be presented by Secretary of the Treasury Houston upon his reappearance.
Monday, before the senate judiciary committee. Bales of statistics and letters, bearing upon the "commitments" which senatorial inquirers are anxious to probe, were prepared for submission and examination.The facts disclosed by the new reports assembled, apparently indicate that most of the money loaned to European governments was spent in the United States for American commodities. The figures show that after the fighting in Europe had ceased, buying in America for unprecedented totals and furnished a vital connection with the wave of profiteering which swept the country most of last year.Although primarily it is not the purpose of the senate committee to deal upon commodity prices at any length, it appeared today, that this phase of the matter would not be passed over, when the "commitments" made by foreign nations, principally with American firms, are analyzed and their legal character examined.There was some question whether or not Secretary Houston will be prepared with documents to establish to the committee's satisfaction the "necessity" under which after-the-war loans were made.AKRON SOFT-DRINK

as Method of Arriving at Wage Scales. It Is Said.Chicago, Feb. 19.—A finish fight between the railroads and their employees over the issue of collective bargaining, seemed inevitable today, as railroads prepared to announce wage reductions for laborers and the heads of railway labor unions marshaled their strength for a bitter fight to prevent wage cuts.Railway executives, today, had definitely rejected collective bargaining as a method of arriving at wage scales. The plea of B. M.
Jewell, president of the railway department of the American Federation of Labor, for a conference to discuss rules and working conditions, was flatly rejected by the American Association of Railway Executives. More than 100 railway heads from all parts of the country attended the conference, at which decision was reached to decline to participate in such a conference.Jewell, Frank P. Walsh, general counsel for railway brotherhoods and other union leaders, have enthusiastically declared that they will fight until the "fundamental principle" of collective bargaining is accepted.
Railroads throughout the country are preparing today to prepare and Bradford and Dyer are also on cism which he admitted was growing, Taber declared that the proposition of the farm organization was misunderstood and misconstrued.

Taber said he and the farm organizations were not for classification and were for a change in the uniform rule only because they realized that it was not being enforced.
M. E. Threlkitt, Judge C. O.
Hunter and L. D. Johnson, Columbus; Gus Karch, Akron, and Professor S. N. Mardis, Ohio university, appeared before the special taxtion of the uniform rule and defeat of the Silver proposal. Threlkitt scored Taber and the other farm organization heads for making the proposal to the legislature to abolish the uniform rule. He asserted that the proposed limitation on the tax on real estate would not be adhered to, because the people were permitted to break the limitation by vote.Representative Chester in his statement, addressed to the home

farm bureaus, says:

PROMISED GERMANYIn Return for Signing Versailles
Peace Treaty.Erzberger Declares That Wilson
Sends a Secret Messenger, Who Negotiates with Berlin, with Credits as Bait.BY FRANK E. MASON.
(Copyright, 1921, by F. E. M.)Berlin, Feb. 19.—Dr. Matthias Erzberger, former minister of finance, former leader of the Center party and author of the famous peace resolution in the Reichstag during the war, declared today, that President Wilson promised Germany American credits if she would sign the peace treaty.In the spring of 1919, according to Dr. Erzberger, President Wilson sent Ellis Loring Dredel from Paris to Berlin as a secret messenger.
According to the German official,
Mr. Dredel was instructed to hold confidential meetings with German cabinet members and to hold out to them the promise of American credits, as a reward, if Germany would sign and accept the allies' peace terms.It was through Mr. Dredel that Berlin secured its first information
as to the peace conditions. "Mr.
Dredel's mission was said by Dr. Erzberger to 'break the news' of the peace terms gently and to promise that if Germany would stand by President Wilson, by accepting the conditions he had succeeded in getting the allies to accept; he would stand by Germany in future peace with her reconstruction.""Several weeks before we had been handed the Versailles terms and while there was a feeling of great anxiety here concerning their probable nature, Mr. Dredel, accompanied by another American whose name at this moment I do not remember, visited Mr. and Count von Brockdorf-Hausau," said Dr. Erzberger. "These Americans called upon other German states."Mr. Dredel said he was instructed by President Wilson to come to Berlin and that he wished to explain, in behalf of Mr. Wilson, how hard the president has labored to secure a just peace for Germany.
"Then Mr. Dredel outlined the original French claims and told in detail how President Wilson had succeeded in having them amended.
Mr. Dredel explained how former Premier Clemenceau—of France—first insisted upon the outright annexation of the left bank of the Rhine by France."Mr. Dredel portrayed how President Wilson had fought Mr.
Clemenceau, making him first agree to give up his annexation plans for the district about Cologne. Then, for a long time, the French insisted upon the annexation of Mayence,
—Mainz—the headquarters of the French army of occupation and also Elsaz."Mr. Dredel told how President Wilson succeeded in causing the French to relinquish their annexation ambition for all the German territory, except the Saar basin, which the French refused to surrender, saying that they were in need of the coal to replace the mines in northern France destroyed during German occupation. The American official explained how President Wilson was responsible for the French compromise to permit a plebiscite in Upper Alsace.
The French, for a long time, obstinately held out for the outright annexation of Upper Alsace by France, according to the information
given to us."American Understand.
"Furthermore, Mr. Dredel told me how much President Wilson had accomplished upon the subject of reparations, forcing through his principle that Germany would be obligated only for the destruction of private and personal property. Mr.
Wilson, as the mouthpiece of the allies, proposed this in a basis for the armistice, in his message, November 5, 1918.Such for Germany.
"Mr. Dredel said that President Wilson wished to express the hope that after all he had done for Germany Germany would not throw him down or leave him in the lurch by refusing to sign the peace treaty. It was said that the Americans realized that the United States must help in the reconstruction of Germany."UNUSUAL ASSAULT

Rear Admiral Fullam, retired naval officer, today, told the senate naval affairs committee, considering naval appropriations.
Fullam said it would have been better to have stopped the navy

"The war disclosed that the bet-the submarine. I do not expect that battleships should be scrapped, but they must be supplemented with air and underwater craft."

"We need $100,000,000 for sub-

PROMPT ACTION ON TARIFF BILL

House Sends It to Conference This Afternoon.

VOTE FOLLOWS A VIGOROUS FIGHT

Cash-Bonus Legislation for Ex-Service Men and Women Left to New Congress.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The emergency tariff bill was sent to conference, today, by the house, by a vote of 190 to 132.

This action by the house came after a vigorous fight, lasting over three hours.

By this action, the house friends of the legislation facilitated action on the bill. It is expected the conference will meet Monday. The house conferees will yield probably to most of the senate provisions of the bill and report an agreement by next Tuesday.

The house conferees named were Fordney, Green and Longworth, Republicans; Rainey and Hull, Democrats.

Tariff Measure.

Washington, Feb. 19.—By a vote of 202 to 116, the house this afternoon, decided to put through for passage the emergency tariff bill, without sending the bill to the ways-and-means committee.

Means Legislation.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Means of providing a cash bonus for ex-service men and women, will be left to the new congress, Republican leaders made it clear, today.

Upon the ability of the new congress to hit upon a plan to raise sufficient revenue to finance a cash bonus will probably hinge its ultimate fate.

All that will be done at this session, it was indicated, will be to authorize a cash bonus and other means for compensation for ex-service men and women, as provided in the house bill passed last session and leave the rest to the new congress.

Republican leaders admitted they did not see how a cash bonus could be provided for by the new congress without taxation being increased. They have decided, however, to permit the question of means to go over to the next administration and seek to have congress only act favorably on the methods of payment now.

An Amendment.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Reduction of the number of immigrants to be admitted to the United States under the senate immigration regulation bill to three per cent per year of the number of each nationality now in this country, was provided for in amendment to the bill adopted by the senate, today.

The Harrison amendment reducing the number to one per cent, was defeated.

Another Harrison amendment, making the number of former immigrants who have become citizens the basis of the three-per-cent calculation was defeated by a standing vote.

Land Charge.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The impeachment charges against Judge K. M. Ladd, of Chicago, will be heard by the house judiciary committee, Monday. It had been decided by the committee to take up the hearings, Tuesday, but the date was advanced because Tuesday is Washington's birthday. Representative Welby, of Ohio, who made the charges, will be heard by the committee.

A Statement.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Chairman Walsh, of the Walsh committee, investigating the shipping board, this afternoon, issued a statement exonerating R. W. Bolling from charges made against him before the committee. The committee is "of opinion that R. W. Bolling is not guilty of soliciting any bribe, gift or gratuity, as charged by Tucker J. Sands, in connection with the contract of the Downey Shipbuilding corporation," Chairman Walsh said.

IS SUSPECTED OF KILLING TEACHERS

Cleveland Man Is Examined by Springfield Officers.

Springfield, Feb. 19.—Aroused by his words and thinking he might be implicated in the murder of two school teachers, near Cleveland, this week, passengers on a Big Four train had Leslie Lemon, colored, arrested when the train arrived here.

At police headquarters, Lemon said he had a dream while in Cleveland. In this dream, he thought, he "committed some horrible deed."

Police Chief O'Brien and others, after questioning Lemon, decided he was mentally unbalanced and that he had no connection with the Cleveland murder. Accordingly, they let him go on his way to Eufaula, Alabama, his home. He was labeled with a tag, giving his address. He said he became ill and was sent to a hospital at Cleveland.

Anyway, a pessimist doesn't bore on half to death with his alleged ideas.

THIS COUNTESS STAYS YOUNG AT NINETY-SEVEN

Countess De Gollere, also known as Dr. Charlotte de Gollere, who, despite her ninety-seven years, rides horseback, swims, takes long walks and declares she feels as young as a schoolgirl.

The countess, whose home is in San Francisco, gives the following prescription for good health throughout a long life. Let the body perspire, not in a Turkish bath, but exercise. Eat raw vegetables and drink buttermilk. Do not eat meat unless you are positively hungry and stop before you have quite satisfied your appetite. More Americans die every year from over-eating than from starvation in some European countries. Drink lots of water.

NEW FARM IMPLEMENT STORE OPENED TODAY

Implement Company Buys Perry C. Royer's Business.

STORE LOCATED AT NO. 224 NORTH MAIN STREET

Marion County Regarded as One of Best Agricultural Counties in the State.

The Marion Implement company, a new business dealing in farming supplies, opened its doors for business this morning at No. 224 North Main street. A car load of machines, which will be used as samples, was received Friday and today were being set up in the company's show room. The new company purchased the business of Perry C. Royer.

This new business house was incorporated this week with a capital of $20,000. Fred Haberman, Jr., is president of the company and M. C. Weisheimer, formerly of Columbus, manager. Mr. Weisheimer has had many years experience in the implement business, four or five years of which have been in the retail trade, and is especially well equipped to manage the new business.

A Complete Line.

Announcement was made by the members of the new company that they intend to handle a complete line of McCormick, Deering and International implements and farm equipment.

It is felt that there is a field here for the new business and point to the fact that Marion county is probably one of the best agricultural counties in the state, as shown by crop statistics, land values and other agricultural reports.

It was stated by the managers of the company that the question of service and repairs is a very important one to the farmers and they will be in a position to give individual service and will have on hand a complete stock of repairs, probably one of the largest in Ohio. Letters were sent out to 2,400 farmers announcing the opening of the new store today.

Names Confused.

Captain Charles Nungesser, the great French ace, who was wounded seventeen times in the war, and a diagram indicating the wounds. Platinum was used to take the place of some of the shattered bones. The top of his head was carried away by shrapnel. Skillful French surgeons brought back skull and skin with such perfect grafting that there is no indication of the injury. Both shoulders and elbows were shattered, but they have been rebuilt with the aid of platinum, and now the ace uses them as though never injured. Amateurs can be expressed by American physicians that the valiant aviator can use his members so well. Nungesser believes his life was saved because of his great strength acquired as an all-around athlete. He is also an expert dancer.

BANDIT SENDS SON MESSAGE

"Go Straight" Is Advice of Henry Starr.

PICTURESQUE BANK ROBBER IS DYING

Shot While Raiding a Bank at Harrison, Oklahoma, Yesterday—Has Lurid Career.

Harrison, Arkansas, Feb. 19.—"Go straight,"

This was the message which went from the possible death bed of Henry Starr, the final ending of whose colorful career of banditry hung in the balance, today, to his son, Henry Starr, Jr., in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Physicians and surgeons fought, today, to save the life of the picturesque bank robber, whose name is probably as well known in the Southwest as that of Jesse James, that he might be returned to the Oklahoma penitentiary to finish an unexpired term, from which he was paroled.

The parole was broken, yesterday, when Starr, with three companions, attempted to ride the People's bank here. Poses searched the woods, five miles south of Harrison for the three confederates who escaped in an automobile after Starr was shot down by W. J. Meyers, a director of the bank. The three bandits were believed surrounded, this morning in a strip of woods, into which they fled after setting their automobile afire. Their capture was momentarily expected.

A patrol was maintained around the woods during the night.

Starr, who is said to claim more bank robberies than any man in the United States, is three-eighths Cherokee Indian. He was well educated and has traveled extensively. His thrilling career of banditry has centered principally in the old Indian territory and in Oklahoma.

IMPOSSIBLE TO OPERATE SHIPS

If Prohibition Laws Are Enforced Aboard Them.

EVEN DRY PASSENGERS PREFER WET SHIP

Wet Foreign Vessels Are Getting the Travel, Secretary of Interior States.

Washington, Feb. 19.—It will be impossible to operate American passenger ships on the trans-oceanic routes, if prohibition is enforced on them, Secretary of the Interior John Barton Payne, former chairman of the shipping board, today told the Walsh committee of the house, investigating the shipping board.

"Booze and boats seem to go together," he said. Foreign passenger ship that permit the dispensing of liquors while on a voyage are getting the passengers away from American passenger ships. Even dry passengers prefer to travel on such ships with the "wet" passenger, because of companionship. American passenger ships can not compete for this reason, with foreign passenger ships and the United States must build up its passenger-ships business if it is to build its merchant marine."

Secretary Payne said that the shipping-board ships should pass into private hands as speedily as possible. "It is necessary, to operate the ships successfully, that they should get return cargoes and this can best be done through private enterprises," he said.

TRIED EVERYTHING ON MRS. HOOVER FIRST

Witness Talks of Firing the First Shot.

ABSOLVES DETECTIVE OF RESPONSIBILITY

Thinks Felts Could Not Have Fired Shot Opening Gun Fight at Matewan.

Mingo County Courthouse, Lumberton, W. Va., Feb. 19.—Dr. W. J. Hill, a dentist who stood between five and six feet from Detective Albert Felts in the door of the Matewan "bottle store," testified today, that in his opinion the detective could not have fired the first shot.

He added he believed the first shot "must have come" from the inside of the store, but this answer was stricken from the record upon the instant demand of counsel for the defense.

His testimony was a blow to the defense, whose case is based upon the claim that Felts did fire the first shot—that it hit Mayor C. C. Testerman, of Matewan, who later died—and that all the hooting on the part of the defendants that followed this shot was done in self defense.

Just as J. J. Connelley, of counsel for the defense, was about to take the witness in hand for cross-examination, court adjourned.

The defending attorneys expressed confidence, immediately after adjournment, that Hill's testimony would be riddled when he is cross-examined.

Mingo County Courthouse

Williamson, W. Va., Feb. 19.—The first chapter of the gruesome man hunt that was the climax of the "battle of Matewan," was told on the witness stand in the "trigger trial," today, by Thomas Chaplin, sixty-seven, of Matewan.

He told of the body of J. B. Ferguson, one of the seven detectives slain in that two-minute bullet exchange, was carried on three litters by five of the nineteen defendants—N. H. Atwood—who has been freed of the murder charge—"Bill" Bowman, "Doug," Mounts, Art Williams and Albert Burgraff. The witness quoted Atwood as saying:

"They—the Felts detectives—carried them in and we carry them out on them."

Those who sympathized with the Baldwin-Felts detectives "ought to have some of the same kind of play," Atwood said, according to the witness.

Chaplin told of having seen many of the defendants, "Reece Chambers," he said, "carried a rifle and wore a red sweater."

DECLINE OF TWO PER CENT. ON OLD DOBBAN

Shown by Livestock Report Issued in Columbus Today.

Columbus, O., Feb. 19.—A decline of two per cent. in the number of horses, two per cent. in the number of milk cows, six per cent. in other cattle, six per cent. in swine and nine per cent. in the number of sheep on Ohio farms for the year ended January 1, 1921, is shown in the livestock report issued in Columbus by W. F. Callender, agricultural statistician for Ohio. The United States census report of the number of livestock on Ohio farms as of January 1, 1920, shows 511,000 horses, 1,926,000 cattle, of which 1,038,000 consisted of dairy cows and heifers over one year old, 2,105,000 sheep and 2,082,000 swine. Applying the foregoing percentages of decrease occurring during 1920 to the census figures, would show the following numbers for January 1, 1921: 735,000 horses, a decline of 16,000 head, 1,833,000 cattle, a decline of 74,000 head; 1,938,000 dairy cows and heifers, a decline of 21,000 dairy cows; 1,935,000 sheep, a decline of 19,000; and 2,000,000 swine, a decline of 184,000 head.

The average value per head showed a marked decline during the year for all classes of livestock. Horses declined from $109 to $104, dairy cows from $92.00 to $71.50, other cattle from $65.50 to $57.50, sheep from $19.20 to $13.50, and swine from $10.10 to $5.50. The total loss in the estimated value of these various classes of stock reaches a total of $71,454,000 for the year, the total estimated value of the livestock on farms a year ago, based on the values per head given above, being $398,552,000, compared to $327,098,000 on January 1, this year.

MASONIC FRATERNITIES MUST PLEAD BY APRIL 2

Beneficiaries in Contested Will of Mrs. George E. Salmon.

GOODYEAR AGAINST TWO MARION MEN SETTLED

Claim Made That Edward F. Evans Assigns Claim to an Insurance Company.

Leave to plead by April 2, 1921, was granted several Masonic fraternities in the common pleas court this morning in the suit of Annadelle Thibaut against Thomas R. Smith and others. The suit is an attempt to set aside the will of Anna G. Salmon, widow of George E. Salmon, the will carrying several bequests in favor of the fraternities. Those given leave to plead are Marion Chapter, No. 70, Free and Accepted Masons; Marion Chapter, No. 62, Royal Arch Masons; Marion Chapter, No. 22, Royal and Select Masters; Marion Commandery No. 36, Knights Templar and Lydia Chapter, No. 63, Order of Eastern Star.

Amended Petition.
An amended petition was filed by the plaintiff this morning in the common pleas court in the $10,000 damage suit brought by Daisy Hostetter against Harley Shuey. The plaintiff is suing for alleged damages as the result of an accident in which she was struck by an automobile at the corner of State and Quarry streets September 8, 1920. The amended petition was filed through Crislinger, Guthery & Strelitz and L. E. Myers.

Came to Settlement.
The case of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber company against Harry C. Claypool and Walter W. Wohlfarth was settled and the costs paid in the common pleas court this morning. The rubber company was suing for $633.25 alleged due them on an account.

Made Party Defendant.
On his own motion, Harry Smith, county treasurer, this morning in the common pleas court was made a party defendant in the injunction suits brought by Millard Hunt and Ross Sedawari to restrain the county treasurer and the city of Marion from collecting assessments levied against their property for the payment of Mill street. Mr. Smith replaced Harry C. Forry, former county treasurer, as defendant.

Demurrers to both petitions also were filed by County Treasurer Smith, through George T. Gerna, city solicitor, on the ground that the facts stated are not sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

Answer is Filed.
The answer of the defendant in the $1,000 damage suit brought by Edward F. Evans against J. Romanoff was filed in the common pleas court this morning through Tracy, Chapman & Weiles, of Toledo, and Crislinger, Guthery & Strelitz. The case is the outgrowth of an automobile collision on the Marion-Delaware pike September 19, 1920.

The defendant denies the extent of damages claimed in the petition and claims the plaintiff is not the real party in interest, because he has assigned his claim to an insurance company. The defendant also sets up that he has brought suit in Lucas county against the plaintiff for damages in the same accident. Dismissal of the petition is asked.

PROMPT ACTION ON TARIFF BILL

House Sends It to Conference This Afternoon.

Cash-Bonus Legislation for Ex-Servicemen and Women Left to New Congress.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The emergency tariff bill was sent to conference today, by the house, by a vote of 190 to 132.

This action by the house came after a vigorous fight, lasting over three hours.

By this action, the house friends of the legislation facilitated action on the bill. It is expected the conference will meet Monday. The house conference will yield probably to most of the senate provisions of the bill and report an agreement by next Tuesday.

The house conferees named were Fordney, Green and Longworth, Republicans; Rainey and Hull, Democrats.

Tariff Measure.

Washington, Feb. 19.—By a vote of 203 to 114, the house this afternoon, decided to put through for passage the emergency tariff bill, without sending the bill to the ways-and-means committee.

Bonus Legislation.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Means of providing a cash bonus for ex-servicemen and women, will be left to the new congress, Republican leaders made it clear today.

Upon the ability of the new congress to raise upon a plan to raise sufficient revenue to finance a cash bonus will probably hinge its ultimate fate.

All that will be done at this session, it was indicated, will be authorizing a cash bonus and other means for compensation for ex-servicemen and women, as provided in the house bill passed last session and leave the rest to the new congress.

Republican leaders admitted they did not see how a cash bonus could be provided for by the new congress without taxation being increased. They have decided, however, to permit the questions of means to go over to the next administration and seek to have congress only act favorably on the methods of payment now.

An Amendment.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Reduction of the number of immigrants to be admitted to the United States under the senate immigration regulation bill to three per cent, per year of the number of each nationality now in this country, was provided for in amendment to the bill adopted by the senate today.

The Harrison amendment reducing the number to one per cent, was defeated.

Another Harrison Amendment.

Another Harrison amendment, making the number of former immigrants who have become citizens the basis of the three-per-cent calculation was defeated by a standing vote.

Landis Charge.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The impeachment charges against Judge K. M. Landis, of Chicago, will be heard by the house judiciary committee, Monday. It had been decided by the committee to take up the hearings, Tuesday, but the date was advanced because Tuesday is Washington's birthday. Representative Welby, of Ohio, who made the charges, will be heard by the committee.

A Statement.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Chairman Walsh, of the Walsh committee, investigating the shipping board, this afternoon, issued a statement exonerating R. W. Holling from charges made against him before the committee. The committee is "of opinion that R. W. Holling is not guilty of soliciting any bribe, gift or gratuity, as charged by Tucker J. Sands, in connection with the contract of the Downey Shipbuilding corporation." Chairman Walsh said.

THIS COUNTESS STAYS YOUNG AT NINETY-SEVEN

Countess De Gollere, who, despite her ninety-seven years, rides horseback, swims, takes long walks and declares she feels as young as a schoolgirl.

The countess, who is known to be in San Francisco, gives the following prescription for good health throughout a long life: Let the body perspire, not in a Turkish bath, but exercise. Eat raw vegetables and drink buttermilk. Do not eat meat unless you are positively hungry and stop before you have quite satisfied your appetite. More Americans die every year from over-eating than by starvation. In some European countries, drink lots of water.

NEW FARM IMPLEMENT STORE OPENED TODAY

Implement Company Buys Perry C. Royer's Business.

STORE LOCATED AT NO. 224 NORTH MAIN STREET

Marion County Regarded as One of Best Agricultural Counties in the State.

The Marion Implement company, a new business dealing in farming supplies, opened its doors for business this morning at No. 224 north Main street. A car load of machines, which will be used as samples, was received Friday and today were being set up in the company's show room. The new company purchased the business of Perry C. Royer.

This new business house was incorporated this week with a capital of $20,000. Fred Haberman, Jr., is president of the company and M. C. Weisheimer, formerly of Columbus, manager. Mr. Weisheimer has had many years experience in the implement business, four or five years of which have been in the retail trade, and is especially well equipped to manage the new business.

A Complete Line.

Announcement was made by the members of the new company that they intend to handle a complete line of McCormick, Deering and International implements and farm equipment.

It is felt that there is a field here for the new business and point to the fact that Marion county is probably one of the best agricultural counties in the state, as shown by crop statistics, land values and other agricultural reports.

It was stated by the managers of the company that the question of service and repairs is a very important one to the farmers and they will be in a position to give individual service and will have on hand a complete stock of repairs, probably one of the largest in Ohio. Letters were sent out to 2,400 farmers announcing the opening of the new store today.

Names Confused.

Paris, Feb. 19.—It was Louise Teller, a nurse, and not Louise Thullier, a Belgian school teacher and war heroine, who committed suicide at her home near Mons, says a dispatch from Lille. The similarity of the names of the two women misled newspapers here and the suicide was given great prominence.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The Italian embassy announced this afternoon, that drastic efforts have been put into effect in Italy to prevent the spread of typhus by emigrants. Embarkation of passengers from the typhus section of Europe has been prohibited, the embassy stated.

Money for Battle.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Surgeon General Cummings, of the public health service, today, asked congress for an emergency appropriation of $200,000 to prevent the further introduction of typhus in New York and to "treat and check the spread of the disease already admitted."

The money is asked to enlarge treatment facilities at Ellis island immigration station, to provide adequate water facilities at Hoffman island and to erect detention barracks for those coming in our ships, on which typhus cases have been discovered. Secretary Houston, of the treasury, accompanies the request of the surgeon general with a recommendation for immediate action by congress.

Revolt Fails.

Mexico City, Feb. 19.—An abortive attempt at a revolutionary uprising in the region of Tampico, has been frustrated by the war department, it was announced today. Washington, Feb. 19.—It will be impossible to operate American passenger ships on the trans-oceanic routes, if prohibition is enforced on them, secretary of the Interior, John Harmon said, former chairman of the shipping board, today told the Walsh committee of the house, investigating the shipping board.

"Boats and boats' crew to go together," he said. "Foreign passenger ships that permit the dispensing of liquor while on a voyage are getting the passengers away from American passenger ships. Even 'dry' passengers prefer to travel on such ships with the 'wet' passenger, because of companionship. American passenger ships can not compete for this reason, with foreign passenger ships and the United States must build up its passenger-ships business, if it is to build its merchant marine."

Secretary Payne said that the shipping-board ships should pass into private hands as speedily as possible. "It is necessary, to operate the ships successfully, that they should get return cargoes and this can best be done through private enterprises," he said.

BANDIT SENDS SON MESSAGE

"Go Straight" Is Advice of Henry Starr.

PICTURESQUE BANK ROBBER IS DYING

Shot While Raiding a Bank at Harrison, Oklahoma, Yesterday—Has Lurid Career.

Harrison, Arkansas, Feb. 19.—"Go straight!"

This was the message which went from the possible death bed of Henry Starr, the final ending of whose colorful career of banditry hung in the balance, today, to his son, Henry Starr, Jr., in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Physicians and surgeons fought, today, to save the life of the picturesque bank robber, whose name is probably as well known in the Southwest as was that of Jesse James, that he might be returned to the Oklahoma penitentiary to finish an unexpired term, from which he was paroled.

The parole was broken, yesterday, when Starr, with three companions, attempted to rifle the People's bank here. Poses searched the woods, five miles south of Harrison for the three confederates who escaped in an automobile after Starr was shot down by W. J. Meyers, a director of the bank. The three bandits were believed surrounded, this morning in a strip of woods, into which they fled after setting their automobile afire. Their capture was momentarily expected.

A patrol was maintained around the woods during the night.

Starr, who is said to claim more bank robberies than any man in the United States, is three-eighths Cherokee Indian. He was well educated and has traveled extensively. His thrilling career of banditry has centered principally in the old Indian territory and in Oklahoma.

TRIED EVERYTHING ON MRS. HOOVER FIRST

Witness Talks of Firing at First Shot.

ABSOLVES DETECTIVE OF RESPONSIBILITY

Thinks Felts Could Not Have Fired Shot Opening Gun Fight at Matewan.

Washington, W. Va., Feb. 19.—Dr. R. J. Hill, a dentist, who stood between five and six feet from Detective Albert Felts in the doorway of the Matewan "bottle store" today, said that in his opinion the detective could not have fired the first shot.

He added he believed the first shot "must have come" from the inside of the store, but that answer was stricken from the record upon the instant demand of counsel for the defense.

His testimony was a blow to the defense, whose case is based upon the claim that Felts did fire the first shot—that it hit Mayor C. C. Testerman, of Matewan, who later died—and that all the housing of the part of the defendants that followed this shot was done in self-defense.

Just as J. J. Conniff, of counsel for the defense, was about to take the witness in hand for cross-examination, court adjourned.

The defending attorneys expressed confidence, immediately after adjournment, that Hill's testimony would be ridiculed when he is cross-examined.

Mingo County Courthouse, W. Va., Feb. 19.—The final chapter of the gruesome case that was the climax of the "bottle store" stand in the "trigger trial" today, by Thomas Chapin, sixty-seven, of Matewan.

He told of the body of J. W. Ferguson, one of the seven detectives slain in that two-minute bullet exchange, was carried on three rifles by five of the nineteen defendants—N. H. Atwood—who has been freed of the murder charge—"Bill" Bowman, "Doug" Mounts, Art Williams and Albert Burgraff. The witness quoted Atwood as saying:

"They—the Felts detectives—carried them in and we'll carry them out on them."

Those who sympathized with the Baldwin-Felts detectives "ought to have some of the same kind of play," Atwood said, according to the witness.

Chapin told of having seen many of the defendants. "Reece Chambers," he said, "carried a rifle and wore a red sweater."

The defending attorneys expressed confidence, immediately after adjournment, that Hill's testimony would be ridiculed when he is cross-examined.

Mingo County Courthouse, W. Va., Feb. 19.—The final chapter of the gruesome case that was the climax of the "bottle store" stand in the "trigger trial" today, by Thomas Chapin, sixty-seven, of Matewan.

He told of the body of J. W. Ferguson, one of the seven detectives slain in that two-minute bullet exchange, was carried on three rifles by five of the nineteen defendants—N. H. Atwood—who has been freed of the murder charge—"Bill" Bowman, "Doug" Mounts, Art Williams and Albert Burgraff. The witness quoted Atwood as saying:

"They—the Felts detectives—carried them in and we'll carry them out on them."

Those who sympathized with the Baldwin-Felts detectives "ought to have some of the same kind of play," Atwood said, according to the witness.

Chapin told of having seen many of the defendants. "Reece Chambers," he said, "carried a rifle and wore a red sweater."

county treasurer, this morning in the common pleas court was made a party defendant in the injunction suits brought by Millard Hunt and Rosa Sedawitz to restrain the county treasurer and the city of Marion from collecting assessments levied against their property for the payment of Mill street. Mr. Smith replaced Harry C. Ferry, former county treasurer, as defendant.

Demurrers to both petitions also were filed by County Treasurer Smith, through George T. Geras, city solicitor, on the ground that the facts stated are not sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

Answer Is Filed.

The answer of the defendant in the $1,500 damage suit brought by Edward F. Evans against J. Romanoff was filed in the common pleas court this morning through Tracy, Chapman & Welles, of Toledo, and Crissinger, Guthery & Strelitz. The case is the outgrowth of an automobile collision on the Marion-Defiance pike September 19, 1920.

The defendant denies the extent of damages claimed in the petition and claims the plaintiff is not the real party in interest, because he has assigned his claim to an insurance company. The defendant also sets up that he has brought suit in Lucas county against the plaintiff for damages in the same accident. Dismissal of the petition is asked.

Don't take our word for what the Huber Light Four will do. Read what A. W. Jones & Sons, prominent stock farmers and proprietors of the Scioto Stock Farm near LaRue have to say after four years' experience with the Huber.

LaRue, O., Feb. 10th, 1921.

Gentlemen: Replying to your inquiry of the 5th, would say that this is our 4th successful season for the Huber Light Four. It has certainly been a time saver, especially in putting in the spring crop when a few days' time means profit or loss.

It has fully come up to our expectations both on the draw bar and for belt work. Last but not the least is your Service Department. In case of a break we have been taken care of at once, no lost time waiting for repairs or the repairman.

Signed, A. W. JONES & SONS.

Here is another from F. A. Fowler, the man who raises full blood Chester White Hogs and lives near Harpster. He purchased his Huber in the spring of 1917.

Harpster, O., Feb. 4th, 1921.

Gentlemen: It is a pleasure for me to state that during the four years that I have owned a Huber Light Four tractor it has more than fulfilled its guarantee. I always figure it equal to five two-horse teams and sometimes more. They are powerful, quick and I would not attempt to farm without a Huber. If I ever wear out my present tractor, the next one will be a Huber also.

My repair bill has been very moderate, and believe me, The Huber Mfg. Co. do take care of their customers.

Signed, F. A. FOWLER.

INTEREST IS INCREASING IN DR. NEWLIN'S REVIVAL

Evangelist Is To Have a Busy Day Sunday.

With only three sermons to his credit Dr. O. A. Newlin clearly demonstrated to a large audience at the First Presbyterian church Friday evening that his quiet, searching manner of presenting the old Scripture truths is gripping an increasingly large number of people. The confident expectation of a notable revival is rapidly gaining strength throughout the church. Preceding the evangelist's sermon last evening in response to an appeal by the pastor, Dr. L. L. Stock, a great number of people pledged themselves to prayer and effort for the salvation of the unconverted.

Dr. Newlin's sermon Friday evening was on the theme "Getting Under the Burden," and it was presented most impressively by a Scripture reading which brought out a twelve-fold portraiture of a Christ.

REVENGE IS SWEET IN DELAWARE GAME

Harding High Five Evens Up on Ancient Rival.

LOCAL Y. M. C. A. CYM
TILT ROUGH AND FAST

Although Every Player Plays
with All His Might, Special Credit Goes to Guards.

(BY FRANK WEEKS.)

Last night a record-breaking crowd, one that shook the balcony of the Y. M. C. A. every time it cheered, witnessed the hardest-fought and latest basketball game in many seasons, when the Harding High quintet defeated Delaware, twenty-seven to twenty-four, and thus worked the revenge that has been lingering in the hearts of local high school students for the past three years.

The game was rough and fast from start to finish, the local fighting like demons maintained an air-tight defense throughout and even over their opponents by sheer speed, Delaware maintained its standard of having the usual "six-tooters" on its outfit but the locals passed over and around their larger opponents and when passing was impossible, made good their long shots. Knachel started the scoring with a pretty shot field goal in the first few seconds of play. Phillips followed up with a foul. Delaware then took a spurt scoring two goals. The locals, however, came back still stronger, Knachel dropping in two more while Minard and Burdette each scored one. Phillips then showed his prowess as a foul shooter by dropping in the ball in five out of six throws from the free-throw line. The score at the end of the half was seventeen to eleven in the Maroonites favor.

Second Period.
Both teams came back strong in the second period, Delaware, however, got the jump and scored twice in lightning succession. The local defense then tightened and again Phillips showed up in true form, making good four out of five goals. The locals played until they could not stand up against their heavier opponents and it was necessary to make several substitutions near the close of the game, but the fight was kept up until the end of the contest. Delaware made a desperate attempt to win by long shots in the last few minutes, but their efforts proved futile and the Maroonites carried off the honors by a twenty-seven to twenty-four score.

Although every man on the team played his best and each gave all he had, special credit is to be given to the guards, while Phillips and Knachel figured in the scoring. Knachel started the ball rolling and gave spirit to his team by scoring in the first few seconds and twice thereafter in the first period. While Phillips, although he played a splendid game in all stages of the contest, the outstanding feature of his game last night occurred when he saved the locals from going under by making good nine out of eleven attempts at fouls. He was also high scorer of the contest.

Hard Men To Stop.
Turney and Highwarden were the hard men to stop on the Delaware team. Line-up:

Brennan Wins

New York, Feb. 19.—Though Bill Brennan won a decision over Bob Martin in a bout that went the limit of fifteen rounds, at Madison Square garden, last night, the heavyweight champion of the American expeditionary forces and winner of the international tournament in France did not sustain a serious setback in his drive toward the top of the division. Experience, nervousness and failure to force an attack that annoyed Brennan when the soldier-fighter assumed the aggressive, cost Martin the decision. For about twenty seconds, at the beginning of each of the last ten rounds, Robert stood off his bulky opponent with that tantalizing left jab, but then he would become arm weary, drop his arms and crouch, waiting for Brennan to lead. When Martin hooked at long range, or slugged with Brennan, he had none the worst of the encounters. In the clinches, however, Brennan punished him severely and pilled up points that won for him.

Last Night's Fights.

At Madison Square Garden.—Bill Brennan received the judges' decision over Bob Martin in a fifteen-round bout. Pinky Lewis was disqualified for holding in the second round of his bout with Red Norfolk. Homer Smith, of Kalamazoo, scored a technical knockout over Wild Bill Held, of California.
At Buffalo.—Rocky Kansas knocked out Richie Mitchell in the first round.
At Paterson, New Jersey.—Lon Bouché, of Bridgeport, outpointed Ned Allen, of Brooklyn, in a twelve-round no-decision bout.

In an Exhibition.

Paris, Feb. 19.—The Ecole de Paris punted a report today that Georges Carpentier had accepted an invitation to appear in an exhibition bout in Berlin, with Brotherstrater, the German boxing champion.

Motor Truck Plunges into River at Akron.

Akron, Feb. 19.—John Yagin, thirty-nine, and Peter Rudiminsky, forty-one, are dead and John and Anna Minick are seriously injured, as a result of the motor truck on which they were riding plunging into the Cuyahoga river, after midnight this morning. According to the information available, the truck was speeding at a forty-mile-an-hour rate when it came down the hill at Monroe Falls, near here. When the truck hit the bridge, the jar caused the bridge to sway, hurling the truck to the side rail. Before it could be righted, the entire bridge gave way, plunging the occupants to the bottom, a distance of ten feet.

People near the scene of the accident found the occupants of the truck beneath the machine. The injured were hurried to nearby homes and first aid administered, later being sent to the hospital here.

FARMERS THROWING THEIR MONEY AWAY

Alleged Purveyor of Fake Oil
Stock Tells Story.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—Farmers are getting so rich they throw money at you," Walter D. Lawer, alleged purveyor of fake oil stocks, told detectives here today. Lawer has confessed, detectives say, that he and M. O. Tolle, his partner, perpetrated frauds aggregating $500,000 on farmers of Michigan and Wisconsin. Lawer's "best sellers," he is alleged to have said, were stock certificates in the "Houma Oil company" and the "Cinematic Service company." Tolle is being sought by detectives today. He is believed to be in Milwaukee. Lawer was arrested yesterday, in an automobile filled with bags of alleged worthless stocks.

rebuilding Germany, and that if Germany signed the peace terms, President Wilson would use his influence at Washington for the purpose of securing credits for Germany.

"Mr. Drosel went to it at once, and with this same message. One of the officials he visited was Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, who for a time was head of the German peace delegation in Paris. As I remember it, Mr. Drosel received a short and cool reception from Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau.

"When the terms came and I saw how different they were from the reparations clauses outlined by Mr. Drosel, I had my representative at Frankfurt send through a message to Paris, inviting Mr. Drosel to come back to Berlin again to discuss the terms. But President Wilson did not see fit to send Mr. Drosel back at this time. However, much later, Mr. Wilson sent Mr. Drosel back to Berlin as the American diplomatic representative."

Mr. Drosel is the present American ambassador in Berlin. He is a native of Boston.

White House Silent.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The White House, today, refused to confirm or deny the statement made by Dr. Matthias Erzberger, that President Wilson had promised Germany American credits, if Germany signed the treaty of Versailles.

"The White House ignores absolutely the statements of Dr. Erzberger," Secretary Tamm said. "The White House has no comment to make one way or the other."

Officials of the White House were apparently much aroused over the statements of Dr. Erzberger, despite their announcement that it would be ignored and one high official characterized Dr. Erzberger's statements as "merely more German propaganda."

IS CONVERTED AND CONFESSES CRIMES

Man Now on Way to New York
To Face Charges.

Akron, Feb. 19.—David E. Decker, forty-one, is on his way back to New York to face a charge of robbing a restaurant store of $2,171, last December.

Decker attended a religious meeting in a mission on the other night and confessed Christianity at its close. Then, according to Rev. Sam Swain, of the mission, he held a private conference with the pastor.

Swain says that Decker confessed to the holdup and asked his advice as to what to do. He also told him, as Swain says, that another man is now serving sentence for the crime.

It is said that Decker acted on Swain's advice and is now going back to face the charge.

Decker also admitted serving time years at Leavenworth prison on conviction of murder. He says he threw Captain Cotton out of a window and in the fall the captain's neck was broken.

Why Not Some Laughs In Inaugural Speech?

"So the main idea is to bulge out with a brain new-style that Woodrow never monkeyed with."

MR. W. G. HARKING.

Dear Sir: I wrote you a letter last wk. to apply for the position of your private secy. and promised that if I was give this position I would write all your speeches and messages and etc. and also promised to write your inauguration address so as you can judge for yourself. If I have got a gift along these lines and said you was at liberty to use this address whether you give me the position or no. Well, W. G., here is the same address like I promised and I guess they're no doubt about you using it as it will knock them dead but maybe I better explain why I have wrote this kind of an address which is so different than the cut and dry inauguration addresses other presidents has sprang.

Well, W. G., what ever else people thinks about Pres. Wilson they can't nobody deny that he is the Duke when it comes to disorganizing the mother tongue and if you was to follow him in with a regular cut and dry speech, why people that had been used to hearing Pres. Wilson's speeches and then heard yours would think they had either elected a deaf mute president or a immigrant that hadn't been over here long enough to pick up the language.

So the main idea is to bulge out with a brain new-style that Woodrow never monkeyed with and that is why I have wrote this kind of a speech with a lot of gags in it and at the same time I have followed the rules laid down by all the presidents since Lincoln has touched on all the big questions of the day without saying nothing about them, and most of the gags I have used I found in a book called "Toasts and After Dinner Stories" which is published here in N. Y. and if you apt to use your private secy. I will bring the book along to the White House and you can memorize the few of the gags so as you won't be at a loss if Co. ever comes will I am not at a loss to keep them in a uprear.

Inauguration Address.

My fellow men and ladies of the opp sex: And speaking of the ladies, I would be a fine bum if I didn't open up this speech with a toast:

Here's to our wives.

They keep our fires.

In little bees and honey.

They darn our socks.

They smooth life's shocks.

And how they spend the money.

[Laughter.]

But I suppose you men folks will be jealous if I don't toast you also, so:

Here's to men. He is like a kerosene lamp. He is not very bright. He is often turned down. He generally smokes. And he frequently goes out at night. [Laughter.]

Me being here today reminds me of the story of the old gentleman that seen a little newsboy carrying a big bundle of papers under his arm. The old gentleman felt sorry for the boy and said, "Don't all them papers make you tired, my boy?"

"Naw," replied the lad. "I don't read them." [Laughter.]

Now ladies and gentlemen I suppose you will want to know how I stand in regards to the situation in Europe. Well friends, that reminds me of a story I heard about an American millionaire that was traveling in Europe in a first automobile and the driver was a speed demon. Finally the scared millionaire got up courage to ask, "Where are we?"

"In Paris," shouted the man at the wheel as they tore along.

"Never mind the details," said the millionaire. "I mean what continent." [Laughter.]

Now my friends, a great many people has ask me when I think the war will be over between this country and Germany. I will answer them by telling a story about a woman that went into a photo-

Once in every woman's life comes a certain great moment. Once in her lifetime something comes to her on which her sole future depends. It has come—or will surely come—to you, just as it came to Aurora Meredith. What do you think it is? You'll know when you see splendid Dorothy Phillips, the star of "The Heart of Humanity" and "The Right to Happiness" play this great part in a picture that every woman in the world will understand. A picture for which a whole opera was produced—in which the players sang just as they sing on the mighty stage of the Metropolitan—a dazzling production in which the social leaders of a great western city acted as the "extras"—a marvelous love story that you'll never forget. See it. Don't miss it. Remember—"Once to Every Woman." At The Marion Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday only.

night. For a long while people has been wondering if Shakespeare or Bacon wrote it. Well you can find out easy now. Just open up the graves of the 2 writers and the one that turned over last night is the author.

[Laughter.]

Well friends I got to make this joke book last 8 yrs. so I will close for this time and I suppose people will think that because my inauguration address has got so many gags that my whole administration will be a joke. But friends things like this works opposite. For inst. you take Pres. Wilson's last inauguration speech and they wasn't a funny line in it.

BUCKEYE BRIEFS

Farmer Loses Arm.—Springfield, O., Feb. 19.—(Clarence) Hendland, farmer, was seriously injured when his right arm was cut off at the shoulder by a corn shredder.

Kills Self in Hotel.—Cincinnati, Feb. 19.—Shot through the heart, Charles Devenport, president of the Cincinnati Appraisal company, was found in his room at a hotel here. A note to the manager of the hotel said he was taking his life because of a decline in his business.

Must Die in the Chair.—Toledo, Feb. 19.—Royce Richard, son, negro, on trial here for the murder of two New York Central railway detectives in the holdup of a company ticket agent Jan. 17, was found guilty by a jury and sentenced to die in the electric chair at the Ohio penitentiary June 17.

FOSTER'S WEATHER

Washington, Feb. 19.—During the early part of the week centering on March 4 a warm wave will cover all the Rockies country and Pacific slope in western Canada. As these weather features move eastward around the north magnetical pole this warm wave will move southeastward into the Mississippi valley, then turn eastward, following its circle, and finally pass down the St. Lawrence valley and out into the European Atlantic steamship route during last part of that week. The storm wave will follow one to four days behind the warm wave. Temperatures will average about normal during passage of these weather features, storm forces will be greater than the average and precipitation will be above the average of the first three months of 1921. A cold wave is expected to fill out the last third of this storm period. The phrase "cold wave" has a definite and technical meaning. To constitute a cold wave the temperature must fall twenty degrees or more, freezing, within twenty-four hours. This fall may occur in a few hours or may take up nearly all of the twenty-four hours. Post weather on the continent is expected at Washington on March 4, inauguration day.

Precipitation of these storms will be located and the amount very much the same as for the past three months. The average precipitation of March, 1921, will also be very much the same in amount and location as for the past four months. Three more storm periods are expected in March. Most severe storms and most precipitation are expected during the week, centering on March 5; warmest weather during week centering on 17th; coolest on 9th and 28th. The equinoctial storms will occur during the week, centering on March 4, or about two weeks before the vernal equinox. The vernal equinox new moon, a very important weather breeder, will occur March 9 about 1 p. m., when the sun and moon at zenith—overhead—at the Gallapagos Islands, about 840 miles south of San Salvador, Central America.

To Go to Hawaii.—Chillicothe, O., Feb. 19.—The following members of the Associated Ohio Paillies have been appointed delegates to the Press Congress of the World at Honolulu, Oct. 4 to 14, by President G. W. C. Perry: F. W. Bush, Athens; Homer Gard, Hamilton; Roscoe Carle, Fostoria; W. J. Galvin, Lima; Mrs. Zell Hart Benton, Warren; John Kaiser, Marietta; J. H. Brush, Salem; Egbert H. Mach, Sandusky, and Mr. Perry.

Coming Battle.—Ardmore, Oklahoma, Feb. 18.—The trial of Clara Smith Hamon charged with the murder of Jake Hamon, Oklahoma oil king and Republican national committeeman, is postponed for March 19 and it will not be held today. Moves made by the prosecution and defense indicate that both sides are lining up for a bitter fight and sensations will crowd the trial.

FROM OUR READERS

Without Prejudice.
Editor Star:—Some members of the Farm bureau have taken my criticism much to heart. It is not my intention and never has been to wantonly offend, much less to insult the intelligence of those comprising the membership of the Farm bureau organization.

The question is not personal, but a public one entirely, and if its structure is so insecure as to not admit of criticism, then we can base not slight hope on its ultimate value to the farmer.

The man who blindly follows any organization adds about as much thought to the world as the parrot who can only say "Polly wants a cracker." You must remember the Farm bureau sprang into being practically overnight, and it has been charged, rightfully or wrongfully, that the big interests dominate the organization. There have been earmarks which would lead one to believe that some basis exists on which said charge was made and published. As one who is interested in farming and therefore interested in a general way respecting the success of the farmer, I have thrown myself in the breach with my criticism. If abuses existed, as is usually the case with new organizations who collect such enormous sums of money, then, timely warning may have the tendency to check abuses that arise. In time the Marion county bureau will find that my efforts have not been estimated by any desire to cast derision on the members of the local organization, but that I have been their real friend and working to a purpose, and I feel that every county bureau needs a few men who will be on the lookout and see that the fellows who head the national organization come into court with clean hands.

I have been denied membership because I would not subscribe to the three-year pledge, and I will now be obliged to lean against the court-house and watch the procession pass by. In other words, I have been decapitated. Oliver Cromwell made a fatal mistake for the permanence of his commonwealth when he bought Charles I from the Scotch and had his head struck off.

As in the county agent system, I have always opposed the same on constitutional grounds as we have no right to tax the general public to supply expert advice to the farmer any more than to furnish him with free legal advice. I have also always questioned the value of the county agent to the farmer. If this institution was entirely divorced from the Ohio State university and the county agent left entirely to the support of the farmer then I would gladly pay my share in support of the agent until such a time when it can be demonstrated beyond question as to his value to the farmer. Can there be any serious objection in taking this stand? I now rest my case before the bar of public opinion.

Morrill, Ohio.

To Investigate.
Washington, Feb. 19.—The state department, today, called the American embassy at Mexico City and the American consul at Progresso, Mexico, to investigate reports that Dr. Clarence Gibbonney and party, of Philadelphia, who were recently reported to have been drowned in Tampameche Bay during a storm, may have met with foul play.

FRENCH TROOPS ARE READY TO ADVANCE

Will Move Unless Peace Terms Are Fulfilled.

Paris, Feb. 19.—Measures to be taken in the event that it is necessary to coerce Germany to fulfill allied reparation and disarmament terms were discussed at a conference between Premier Briand, War Minister Barthoin, Marshals Foch and Pétain, General Weigand and others. The military experts of France already have planned down to the smallest detail the advance of French troops toward a secret destination in case of such an emergency. It is declared. The class of 1919 will be kept with the colors and the class of 1918 will be called up and arranged in the French occupation area into the Coblenz district, should the Washington administration decide to recall American forces from Germany.

GREEN BUGS ARE

RAVAGING FIELDS

Are Moving Toward Kansas from Oklahoma.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 19.—Miracle of green bugs of a kind not yet identified, have appeared in Oklahoma and are advancing toward the Kansas wheat fields, according to information received here by J. C. Mohler, secretary of the Kansas state board of agriculture. Crops in the infected districts of Oklahoma are seriously threatened according to a message from Oklahoma City, which quoted Thomas H. Gordon, state entomologist, as announcing he would leave there immediately to investigate. Gordon said the bugs had entered Oklahoma from Texas. According to Mohler's information, the bugs have reached Field, Okla. making a clean sweep of as much wheat as they can cover. Cooler days will stop the bugs, Mr. Mohler said. Their growth has not been retarded by the cool nights, so has the growth of the parasites which destroy them, he said.

CONTRACTS SIGNED BY RUSSIAN AGENTS

Enormous Quantities of Clothing Are Purchased.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—Representatives of the soviet government of Russia are said to be seeking enormous quantities of clothing from garment manufacturers here, one manufacturer saying he was told by two men claiming to be soviet representatives that they had inside information that the new administration had decided to recognize the Russian government on March 18. Contracts are said to have been signed for 200,000 dresses, 500,000 skirts and an equal number of women's coats. Max Schallman or Solomon, according to one manufacturer signed these contracts, as the representative of the soviet government. The soviet representatives it is said seem plentifully supplied with funds, and offered to deposit large amounts in banks to insure delivery of orders.

Cleveland, Feb. 19.—A reward of $10,000 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer, or murderers, of Misses Louise Wolf and Mabel Foote, "no part of which is to go to any public official" was today offered by the board of county commissioners. The two women were brutally murdered, Wednesday evening, their bodies being discovered Thursday morning by pupils at Parma rural high school, where they were teachers.

A LIFE TERM SENTENCE FOR SLAYER OF EDWARDS

Verdict Last Night Carries a Recommendation of Mercy.

JURORS AGREE TO KEEP MUM ON DELIBERATIONS

Austrian Who Beats to Death American Shows No Emotion. Sentenced Monday.

Marion, Va., Feb. 20.—The jury in the case of the slaying of George E. Edwards, an American, by an Austrian, was found guilty of murder in the first degree, and recommended a life term in the penitentiary.

Yulick played no emotion when the verdict was announced, receiving it with the same outward calm that has characterized his conduct during the three days the trial was in progress.

While the recommendation of mercy by the jury removed the death penalty, the finding of Yulick guilty of first degree murder also removes the jurisdiction of the board of pardons in Yulick's case and leaves the governor the only pardoning authority.

Judge Grant E. Mosser this afternoon overruled a motion by the defense for a new trial. The judge announced this afternoon that he will sentence the prisoner Monday morning.

Jurors "Stand Mute." No information could be obtained regarding the number of ballots taken by the jurors or the degree of guilt considered by them. In their deliberations, one of the jurors, stated this morning that the members of the jury took up took up this matter last night before returning a verdict and that all of them entered a compact to keep secret the details of their deliberations.

While the fate of Yulick had been in the hands of the jury exactly four hours when the verdict was returned, only about three hours of that time was used in deliberation in the jury room.

Start Deliberating at 7 P. M. Immediately after the charge had been delivered by Judge Mosser, the jury was taken to supper and did not return to the jury room until about 7 o'clock. A number of people waited in the courtroom for the jurors to reach a decision.

Argument in the case closed at 6:35 o'clock Friday afternoon with a thirty-five minute speech for the state by Fred W. Warner, prosecuting attorney. He was preceded by Charles L. Justice, who talked for one hour and thirty-five minutes for the defense. H. S. Young and Grant E. Mosser, Jr., for the defense, talked earlier in the afternoon and Fred L. Carhart opened the case for the prosecution just before the noon recess.

Of Wide Scope. Judge Mosser occupied twenty-five minutes in delivering his charge to the jury. The charge was most comprehensive and clearly outlined to the jurors the law in the case.

Interest in the case increased as the trial neared a close and the crowd in the courtroom Friday afternoon was much larger than at any other session of the case. The people remained until all of the argument was in and the charge had been delivered.

Make-up of Jury. A. W. Jones, of Bowling Green

George E. Edwards, Miss Beadie Edwards, and Mrs. William Conner, father and sisters of the murdered man, left for their homes in West Virginia today. They remained in Marion during the entire trial, and were present when the verdict was read.

Washington, Feb. 12.—Three appropriation bills, aggregating more than $360,000,000, passed the senate with only 11 working days remaining of the present session, the appropriation bills were given a clear path in the effort to pass all of the major measures by March 4, requested by President-elect Harding.

The bills passed were the postoffice bill, carrying $57,000,000; the annual diplomatic and consular bill, totaling $10,000,000, and the $276,000,000 deficiency measure. Senate amendments increased the three bills over $145,000,000 over totals voted in the house, which will necessitate amendments in conference.

Cooperation between senate and house in disposing of the appropriation bills was the subject of a conference between senate Republican leaders and Representative Mondell, chairman of the house appropriations committee. The house representatives agreed to aid in expediting conference action.

All except one of the appropriation bills has passed the house, but the senate has to pass six—the army, agriculture, rivers and harbors, education and general deficiencies, and the postoffice.

Some Republican leaders still express hopes of enacting all of the appropriation measures before adjournment, but others have abandoned hope of passing the navy bill and, possibly, the army bill. Estimates on the navy bill have been given by the senate naval committee and the army bill will be reported to committee early next week.

In the three money bills just passed the senate most of the appropriations were routine. Passage of the postoffice bill was marked by rejection of a proposed rider to appropriate $100,000 for the federal road building fund.

The diplomatic bill carried provisions authorizing acceptance of J. P. Morgan's home in London as an American embassy, for indefinite extension of the system of recruiting visa by American consular officers abroad of emigrants' passports, and creating a commission to acquire embassy, legation and consular buildings in 14 foreign capitals. Among the items in the deficiency bill as passed was an increase from $100,000 to $1,150,000 in the prohibition enforcement fund.

BANDIT WOUNDED;
IS SHOT BY BANKERAttempt Made To Rob Country
Bank in Kansas.

Harrison, Ark., Feb. 10.—Henry Starr, notorious Oklahoma bandit, was probably fatally wounded when, with two companions, he attempted to rob the People's bank of Harrison. When the robbers backed employees of the bank into the vault, a bank officer seized a rifle that had been hidden there and shot Starr down. He then opened fire on the other two, but they escaped.

At the county jail Starr admitted his identity. He underwent an operation at the jail, performed in an effort to save his life. He was shot through the body, just below the heart. He dictated telegrams to his wife at Tulsa and his son, Henry Starr, Jr., at Oklahoma City, telling them that he was dying. "I always expected to die with my boots on," Starr told officers.

He later was said to have given the names of his companions, Hugh Davis and Tom Jones. The bandits, who escaped in an automobile, but after driving a mile south of the town they set the machine on fire and escaped into the hills.

Starr was pardoned two years ago by Governor Robertson from a 20-year sentence on a bank robbery charge.

Perjury Alleged.

Bismarck, N. D., Feb. 12.—J. W. Brinton, formerly private secretary to A. C. Townsend, president of the National Nonpartisan league, was arrested on a charge of perjury in connection with his recent testimony before the senate committee investigating the audit of the Bank of North Dakota.

IT DASTARDLY CRIMEWall Street Explosion Not an Accident, Jury Says.

New York, Feb. 12.—The Wall street explosion last September, which took a toll of 38 lives and injured nearly 200, was "a dastardly crime, intentionally committed," in the opinion of the grand jury which investigated the disaster.

Dismissing the theory of an accident in a presentment filed upon its discharge by Judge Mulquhenn of general sessions, the jury expressed conviction that an "infernal machine was brought to Wall street in a wagon and there abandoned."

The grand jury recommended that the city increase to $50,000 the reward of $10,000 for the discovery of the perpetrators of the crime, and also that the offer remain in force for an indefinite period. It also was pointed out that the city and federal authorities should not relax their efforts to bring to justice the persons responsible for the explosion.

MANIA NOT CURED
BY AN OPERATIONDoctors, Fail in Case of a Pittsburgh Convict.

Pittsburgh, Feb. 12.—Martin Hendel, convicted of robbery some time ago, was saved from going to prison by several surgeons who appeared in court and testified that by operating on the man's head they could cure his alleged mania for stealing. They said that Hendel's trouble was caused by a section of the skull pressing against the brain. The court suspended sentence, pending results of the operation. The operation was performed and Hendel was released from the hospital as cured. Several weeks ago he was arrested and charged with stealing an overcoat. The jury returned a verdict of guilty and Judge John C. Haymaker sentenced him to serve not less than six years and not more than nine years in the western penitentiary.

The Crankcase

THE CRANKCASE SERVES the following purposes: It supports the cylinders and resists the reactions of forces set up in them. It supports the entire engine upon the chassis frame. It furnishes bearings for the crankshaft, camshaft, timing-gears and valve push-rods. It includes a mounting for the generator, magneto, water pump, oil pump and other auxiliaries. It is necessarily made of at least two sections in order to permit the assembling and adjustment of the working parts. The most common method being two parts joined in a horizontal plane, as here shown. Sometimes the upper section is cast in one with the cylinders, more commonly the upper half is, as here represented, a separate iron or aluminum alloy casting and the lower half a pan like construction of pressed steel. Figure 1 is a partial vertical lengthwise section through the crankcase of a typical four-cylinder, I. type engine, having a three crank support and a circulating splash lubrication system, while Figure 2 is a partial vertical crosswise section of the same. The cast iron upper section is indicated by the cross-hatched areas and the pressed steel lower section or oil pan in full black lines. An oil tight gasket is bolted between them. The lower section can readily be removed by unbolting it, when full access is afforded, from below, to bearings and other parts. The upper section bears the engine supports, one at front B, in the axis of the car, and one C on each side toward the rear. These caston supporting arms C are rigidly bolted to the side frame members, while B is ball shaped and seated in a socket in the frame front cross-member. This and other forms of three-point mounting are adopted so that the crankcase shall not be unduly stressed when the frame bends on rough roads—the slight freedom of movement at B preventing this. At the front of the case is formed the timing gear compartment D, in which is located the crankshaft gear, which meshes with the half-time gear by which the camshaft gear is driven and also the gear that drives the generator or other auxiliary shaft. At E, Figure 2 is shown, in partial elevation, the bolted on cover which closes this compartment in front. The upper half also includes at its rear, the flywheel and clutch enclosure F, to which is bolted the casting G, which may be taken to represent the housing that supports the transmission of a unit power drive. All bearing supports are parts of the upper half casting, which permits the lower section to be "dropped" without disturbing working parts. The rear crankshaft or main bearing H at the flywheel end is formed in a support cast in the rear wall of the case; the front crankshaft bearing K is located in a cast support in the front main wall and the center bearing J is supported in a bracket extending downward from the top of the case. At L is shown a section of a main bearing shell, with its babbit metal bearing surface M, the channel N, through which oil enters it from the splash collecting pocket immediately above, O the ring shaped catch-pocket, which collects oil thrown by the crankshaft and P, the passage for draining this oil back into the case, instead of allowing it to leak into the clutch compartment. These three bearings are made in halves, along a horizontal plane, the upper halves R being fixed in their supports, while the lower halves or caps S, are removably bolted to their upper halves, as shown in Fig. 2. The camshaft bearing supports T are three brackets cast in one side wall of the case, the bearings themselves usually being solid bushings with similar oil pockets and oil passages as are provided for the main bearings. The true relative position of the two sets of bearings is shown in Fig. 2. At V is indicated the circular aperture in the top of the case, over which a cylinder is bolted and through which its connecting-rod plays, while the eight holes W are those through which the pushrods extend upwardly through the case from the camshaft, to operate the valves. X is a false bottom of pressed steel, supported in the lower half of the case and bearing the depressions or splash pockets Y, one under each connecting-rod. These are kept full of oil by the pump and the connecting-rods dip into them, splashing oil to all parts of the case. The plugged opening Z, affords means for drawing off the oil and the supply is replenished through the capped filler-tube I, in which is often placed the oil level indicator operated by a float riding on the surface of the oil in the space below X, which is the oil reservoir or "sump". It is from the oil that drains back to this sump, that the oil pump (not shown) draws its supply, through a fine meshed strainer.

Trouble Solver For Automobiles

(If you have any troubles or wish any information about your automobile write to Frederick C. Guertlich, M. E. Stamford, Conn. section.)

Q. I have a Buick Little Six, out of the laboratory. I am having a combination switch on the dash having an ammeter on it with a coil back of the ammeter. When the machine is warm it starts all right, but after standing all day or night, it will spark somewhere around the bottom of the ammeter. Once it sparked so badly that the coil in back of the ammeter got red hot all over, but cooled off as soon as the switch plug was shoved in. I took down the switch and tightened all connections, but it still sparks. C. C. P.

A. Sparking in an electrical circuit is always due to a loose connection or to broken down insulation. Heating will be due to the current flowing too quickly, which may be caused by a short-circuit or to some unit operating for a stretch at a time which should only operate for a short time, as, for example, closed interrupter points when engine is idle and switch on. Move them likely your trouble is due to a break down of the insulation inside of the switch. Also the resistance at the coil may be broken or disconnected. There may be a short circuit inside of the ammeter.

Q. The generator of my car has ceased to generate. The unit operates O. K. as a starter. Have tested all wires between generator and battery and find none loose or broken. Have inspected and tested the regulator and find same apparently O. K.

W. would working into the generator from the sprocket chain driven from the engine fan took fan coils or armature with the above result? If so, how could the oil be removed if such is found to be the case? A. K. R.

A. If oil gets into the coils or armature it is liable to short-circuit them, and I am inclined to believe that you will find this the cause of your trouble. You can clean them in gasoline, and it would be well to give them a coat of shellac when you can.

I obeyed her and shared her amusement at seeing the eyes of two men in the real estate office fairly glued on us as we advanced toward the door. One of them started to 15 feet as we came abreast of it, turned abruptly, and walked away from the door as we passed on.

"How they'd like to lean out and grab people who look like buyers!" Lillian observed maliciously. "It must be mighty hard on them to keep up this pose of proud indifference which they've adopted lately. Let's walk down around the corner here, and then come back. We've had a chance to give those men the once over before they begin to talk to us, which is always a strategic move."

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers.

There is a nation of meat eaters who are filled with uric acid, and who are constantly on guard against its trouble.

Do their utmost to keep out of this irritating acid, and the result is the over-accumulation of the uric acid in the blood to a dangerous system.

Their kidneys ache and feel full of lead, and you have pains in the back or the joints full of sediment, or the most irritating, burning, and severe headaches, and dizzy spells, and rheumatism in the joints from your phosphate of four ounces of J. D. Salts.

A tablespoonful is a good dose before breakfast each day for a few days your kidneys will be free from the acid of uric acid, combined with the salts, and stimulate circulation, neutralize the acids, and no longer a source of uric acid.

It is inexpensive and can be taken with a glass of water, and no mistake in taking it to keep the kidneys active.—Adv.

The Glow of Health Comes to You
If you are careful to follow the advice of your older friends or relatives. For over 50 years ago, Dr. Pierce, then a young practicing physician discovered that a prescription made up of Lady-slipper root, Viburnum, black and blue Cohosh, Unicorn root, Oregon Grape root, and made into a liquid extract, or tablets, without alcohol, was wonderfully efficient as a tonic for those pains and ills so common among the women folk. This woman's tonic has sold as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for over fifty years and is just as popular and efficient now as at any time. Over a million bottles were sold last year and many of your friends and neighbors can testify as to how good it is.

Madisonville, Ohio—"I have always used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription since I was a young lady. My mother gave it to me for feminine trouble and we were surprised when I had taken it but a short time how it had helped me. I have always thought it saved my life. I have had very good health ever since. I wish all women who suffer with feminine trouble to know about this wonderful medicine."—MRS. JAMES E. GRASSMANN, R. F. D. No. 10, North Gouven Ave.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

It's Grandmother's Recipe to keep her Locks Dark, Glossy, Beautiful.

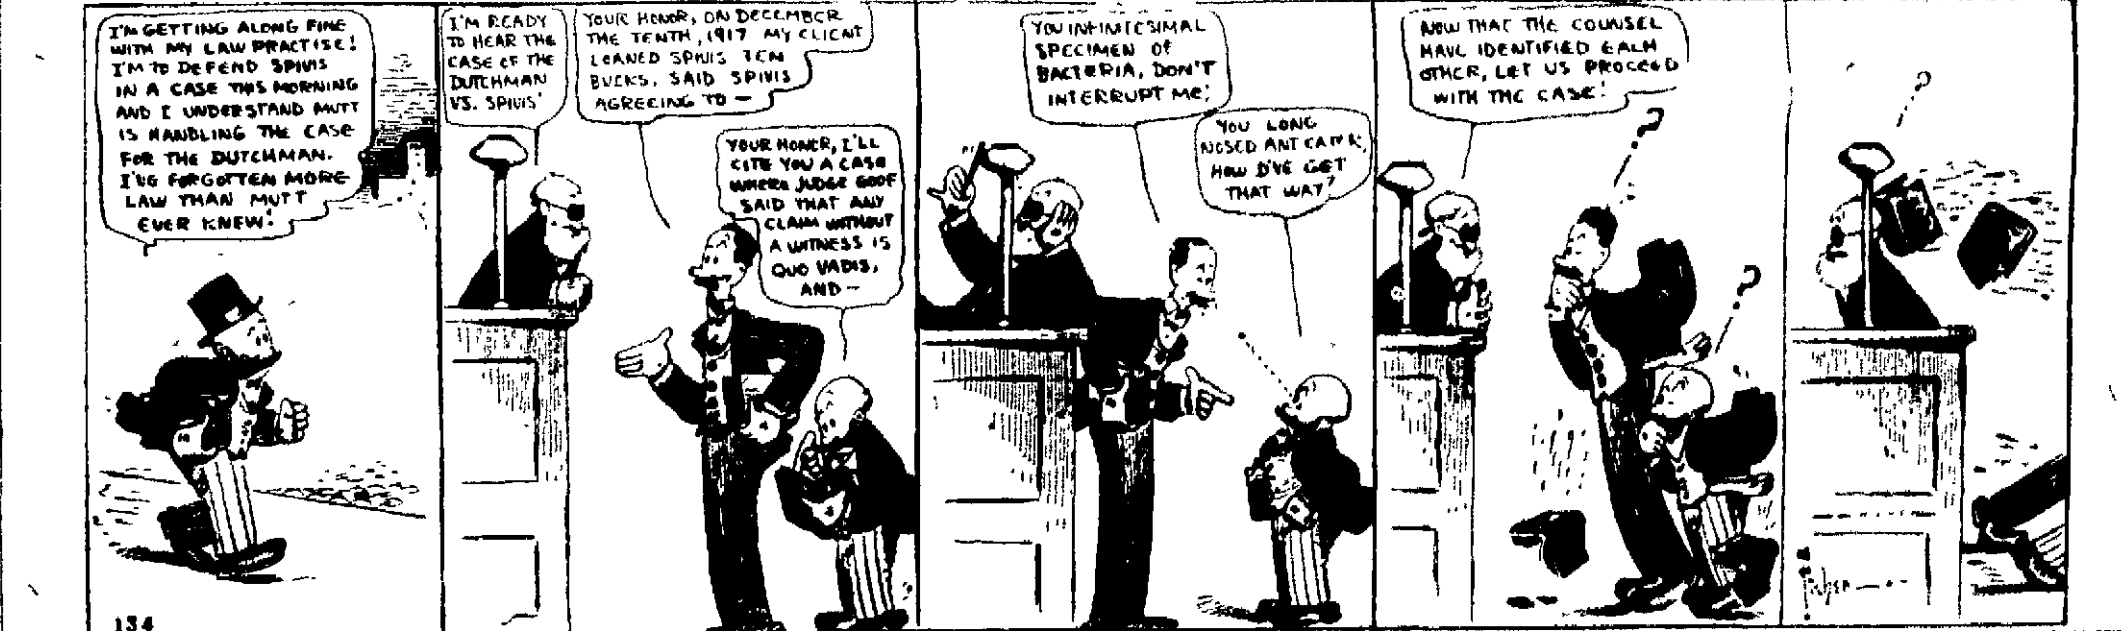

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite essential, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is one of the greatest advantages.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the sulfur, mixing at home. All things being equal, the ready-made product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," is a very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply wash your comb or a soft brush, with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delicate the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair, after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is an attractive—Adv.

GARIS' BEDTIME STORIES

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE SLUSH WOLF.

[BY HOWARD B. GARIS.]

[Copyright 1921, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.]

"Hal! Hal! Hal!" turned Uncle Wiggily's head toward the door of his little bungalow. The door was open, and he saw a very large, and they needed to be, for the slush was very deep. Only a little more than the tip of the nose of the Wolf showed above the top of the slush.

"I'll get that rabbit this time," and the Wolf to himself. "I'll grab him and bring him back to my den to know the Fox and Bear that I am wiser than they."

Along and along and along went the Wolf, and pretty soon he met a blue jay bird.

"Please give me something to eat," Mr. Wolf begged the blue jay bird, who saw the bad case even in his slush boots.

"Get out of my way! I'll give you nothing to eat!" growled the Wolf, most impudently. "I'm going to get Uncle Wiggily!"

"Oh, are you? Well, I guess not if I can stop him!" cried the blue jay.

"Uncle Wiggily is a friend of mine."

"Pooh! Those holes will catch me!" growled the Wolf, as he ran along toward Uncle Wiggily's bungalow. But as he reached the place where the bunny lived the Wolf began to get cold feet. The slush was breaking in the holes made by the kind blue jay.

"I must hurry and get Uncle Wiggily before my boots fill to the top, and drown me," thought the Wolf. "I didn't believe the blue jay could do me any harm, but he has! I must hurry! I won't bother to knock! I'll just burst in the door and take Uncle Wiggily and Nurse Jane, too!"

The Wolf reached the bungalow's stoop, but just as he was going to break in, all of a sudden, with a gurgle and a gaggle his boots filled to the very tops with cold ice water and slush, and the Wolf had to jump out of them to save himself from drowning.

"Oh, I see who you are! I see who I won't let you get me!"

"How can you stop me?" asked the Wolf.

"I'll bite holes in your boots with my strong beak," answered the blue jay. Then, before the Wolf could stop him, the blue jay bird flew down and nipped a hole in each of the Wolf's slush boots.

If a man does the best he can, and declines to brag about it, is a pretty good chap to the rest of the world.

If a man's watch stops every day, he looks at it and is foolish to waste money on a comical.

The Markert China Store, company, which has been in business at No. 147 west Center street the past eleven years, has leased space in the basement of the Frank Brothers company's store, and will open for business in its new location April 1.

The Markert China Store expects to conduct a complete and exclusive china store, adding some new lines to its already large business. The basement is now being remodeled to accommodate this new department, which will be one of the finest and most modern stores of its kind in this section of the state.

The change is being made, modeling after big city stores, which have china departments in their basements.

Charles A. Markert, who has successfully managed the business in the past, will continue as manager of the company's new store.

The Markert China store is one of the oldest established businesses in Marion, having been started forty-four years ago by the late J. C. Markert, who before coming to this country was a potter in Germany. Markert's china store on south Main street was one of the best-known stores in the city and after the death of Mr. Markert his four sons incorporated the business and then moved it to its present location and have since continued in the business there.

The Badge of Efficiency Is Service!

THE BADGE OF EFFICIENCY, WHETHER IT be in the individual or the business enterprise, is satisfactory service. And in no contingency does SERVICE carry greater significance than when YOU START TO BUILD.

TIME IS ALWAYS PRECIOUS. IN CONSTRUCTION work TIME IS ACTUALLY MONEY. Wages are high. Every minute is golden with carpenters about. Nothing can be more annoying than DELAY IN DELIVERY OF NEEDED MATERIAL. To construct economically everything must move like clock-work.

AGAIN YOU MUST HAVE QUALITY. THAT is to say your material must not only be right, BUT OF CORRECT DIMENSION as needed. How gratifying indeed to be able to call your lumber dealer KNOWING IN ADVANCE THAT HE HAS JUST WHAT YOU WANT and that he will DELIVER IT ON TIME?

WE ARE PARTICULARLY PROUD OF OUR LUMBER. We know before we receive it ourselves that IT'S CUT RIGHT. We can GUARANTEE its quality. In fact, our slogan is "PERFECT QUALITY," and this guarantee is indelibly ingrained in every single stick of it we sell.

ADDED TO THIS IS OUR HABIT OF SERVICE. We expect to give you what you want where and when you want it. And added to all this we afford you the advantage of buying in bulk for we handle practically everything known to building material and accessories. No need to go elsewhere. No necessity to waste time "shopping around." This saves you TIME. This eliminates WORRY. IN THE END THIS SAVES YOU MONEY.

THINK ALL THIS OVER. IF YOU'VE never dealt with us ask someone who has. We're satisfied to rest our case in the matter of SERVICE with any of our patrons. WE ALWAYS MAKE GOOD and we're seeking opportunity to prove our case to you.
